OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY.

1) To study the genesis and growth of the Derivatives Operations in the Indian Capital Market.

2) To understand the constraints/challenges faced in Derivatives Operations by various entities of the market including regulators, developers and investors.

3) To understand the need and importance of investors protection relating to derivatives transactions.

4) To assess the perception and worries of small investors in the Indian derivatives market.

5) To understand nature and grievances faced by small investors in the derivatives market along with the reasons why investor would like to approach to particular regulators and further assess investors experiences regarding the redressal of grievances.

6) To assess the SEBI’s attitude towards Derivatives market players and to study the adequacy of measures for reviving investor’s confidence.

7) To assess the awareness and usefulness of investor education programmes for investor protection.