Hypothesis:

- Advertising and event management influence prescription generation in ethical pharmaceutical marketing.

- A digital medium can have the same impact on prescription generation as a medical representative.

- If the influence of advertising and event management is taken out of the equation, would it affect prescriptions?