OBJECTIVEES :-

1. To find out the development of dairy farming in sangli district with spatio-temporal change.

2. To highlight the impact of dairy industries and co-operative dairy farming of rural development in Sangli dist.

3. To study the impact of operation flood programme on the progress of dairy farming.

4. To Study geographical condition of sangli district to support the development of dairy farming.

5. To analyse the socio-economic infrastructure about the dairy farming.

6. To make the suggestion for future development of dairy farming.

4) HYPOTHESIS:

1. That the physical and cultural factors in the sangli dist. Are suitable for the development of dairy farming.

2. That the co-operative dairy farming is play most Vital role in rural development of sangli dist. .

3. Dairy farming have been supported to the improvement of economic condition of the small and marginal farmer’s.