OBJECTIVES

Research problem:

‘A study in urban geography of the Nashik city' is a research problem, in which population growth and urbanization of Nashik city and their problems will be studied.

The major objectives of the present study of Nashik city are as under:

1) To study the demographic characteristics of the Nashik city
2) To study the occupational structure of the Nashik city.
3) To study the suburbs of the Nashik city.
4) To study socio-economic and cultural aspects of slums of the Nashik city.
5) To study analyze functions and functional classification of Nashik city.
6) To study the development trends and their environmental impact in the Nashik city.
7) To study the city development and planning for future development.