Objective of Study:

The main objectives of the present research study are:

i) To concentrate on the various ways in which the novels of De and Sahgal can be studied, and man-woman relationship which help us to observe their novels in details;

ii) To examine critically the fiction of De and Sahgal in the light of human relationship.

iii) To study primarily the socio-politic aspects and their problems pertaining to various socio-political issues.

iv) To distinguish the outer and inner life of the characters and their relationships with other characters.

v) To focus on De’s and Sahgal’s vision of man-woman relationship.

vi) To concentrate in the way the man-woman relationships are depicted in the society. Thus, the objectives of the present research work place De and Sahgal in inquisitive locations as the gigantic writers of this era.