1.4 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

The present study is a research in life and is concerned basically with books, library and web references. Therefore, library research methodology is adopted in the present context. The study will also consider qualitative technique to evaluate women’s characterization as portrayed by Anita Desai in her novels.