OBJECTIVE OF THE STUDY

The present research study is carried out with following objectives.

1. To study the role of the cooperative sugar factories in the development of rural area in Maharashtra state.
2. To study the working & functioning of the cooperative sugar factories.
3. To study the progress and performance of cooperative sugar factories.
4. To study the problems of cooperative sugar factories.
5. To study and examine the role of Govt. schemes, cooperative department assistance and NGO’s which are working for the development of the cooperative sugar factories as well as development of rural geographical area.
6. To study the development of financial position of sugarcane producer and sugarcane workers.
7. To study the various problems of sugarcane workers in Maharashtra especially in Pune District.