Hypothesis :-

1. The level of academic achievement of SC/ST students studying in colleges of Education are low.

2. There is no significant difference between achievement and motivation of SC/ST students studying in colleges of Education.

3. There is no significant difference between emotional intelligence and motivation of SC/ST students studying in colleges of Education.

4. There is no significant difference between academic achievement intelligence and motivation of SC/ST students studying in colleges of Education.

5. There are educational problems with SC/ST students studying in colleges of Education.