OBJECTIVES OF THE RESEARCH WORK

● To study the existing data of equity transactions take place in NSE and BSE.
● To study data of transaction captured during day to day transaction on BSE and NSE.
● To study and review the recent developments in Data Mining techniques for the stock market.
● To Study and find relation and pattern among the stocks of one group
● To study and find relation and pattern among the stock of different group.
● To study and find the different trend of particular stock in a group.
● To study and find the trends of stocks related to stock of different group.
● To study and find the positive and negative inter relationship of same group stocks.
● To study and find the positive and negative inter relationship of different group stocks.