OBJECTIVES:

The objectives of the present research study are,

i) To know the nature and related components of fraud in detail.

ii) To critically evaluate each and every related aspects of fraud in detail.

iii) To review the related literature in detail.

iv) To know existing legal control mechanism in independent India.

v) To know the importance and objectives of each related factors of legal control mechanism.

vi) Know the major factors responsible for occurrence and recurrence of corporate frauds over the years.

vii) To critically evaluate and examine the existing provisions of the laws enacted under Independent India in control and prevention of the corporate frauds.

viii) To formulate a suggestive measures and mechanism in control and prevention of corporate frauds in more effective way than the existing legal framework.