METHODOLOGY:

Methodology adapted here in this study is to collect the information sources from printed and electronic materials.

For this study, doctrinal, non-doctrinal, analytical, description and critical methods have been adapted. Relevant legal control provisions have been referred, analyzed and critically evaluated.

Primary sources – for this study, applicable regulations of India and related literature have been referred.

Secondary Sources - further available literature on subject like journals, publications, periodicals, reports and the internet is taken assistance from.