Objectives of the Present work:

In the present study an attempt has is made to assess and evaluate the reservation system as has been promulgated by Dr.B.R.Ambadeker.

Objectives of the study

- To study historically the evolution of reservation and its influence on the then period.
- To analyze the basic documents behind the reservation system in India.
- To evaluate the various principles which had have helped the era of reservation process.
- To evaluate the concept of Untouchability.
- To evaluate the system of social reformation in the then society and set up.
- To analyze changes in the society through various social and moral activities in order to cultivate the virtue among the people.
- To examine the coordination between government and the Babasaheb Ambadeker to eradicate the social evils in various kinds of societies.
- To analyze the democratic set up made by the Dr.B.R.Ambadeker to make the liberalization in the matters of the extension of the awareness among the people of our origin.
- To examine the future policies of the government to provide reservation to downtrodden people of India in order to provide them.
- To mention the future approaches for the upliftment reservation system