Objectives of Studies

1) To trace the genesis and growth of Native Libraries in Maharashtra in general and Nasik region in particular.

2) To survey information resources (collection) facilities and service available in the Native Libraries.

3) To examine the nature and quantum of financial resources of these libraries.

4) To examine the extent of information technology applications in the libraries.

5) To identify if any lacunae in the library facilities service and other information facilities.

6) Suggest ways and means to improve the services in the libraries.