Hypothesis:

In reformulating objectives in the Indian context today, we have to take into account the motivation of the learners, the availability of resources for teaching of English.

The research includes the following hypothesis.

A] The students, who have knowledge of the context of the news, perform better in learning language items.

B] The students who have good environment for assimilating spoken English can learn grammar or language items easily.

C] Awareness of current affairs and daily reading of Newspapers, Magazines enhance the understanding of grammar and vocabulary items.

D] Students who have skills and interest to make use of the relevant reference materials i.e. Dictionaries, Thesaurus, Encyclopedia can easily overcome difficulties in the use of English.

E] Textbooks provide a useful resource for learning that can be adapted and supplemented by the teachers.

F] Use of the Internet makes the students more actively involved in the learning process.

G] Language teachers can use modern technology for enhancing interests of students in the Internet and level of English proficiency can be improved.