4.0 Aims and Objectives of the present work:

For further study of partition work, I would have to decide some aims and objectives for this research. These are as follows;

1) To define and interpret the concept of partition and saga of pain
2) To evaluate its impact, appearance and delineation in literature
3) To delineate of a saga of pain in the novels of partition
4) To study partition fiction
5) To focus on the values and attitudes of the author
6) Explore the 1947 partition of India through literature
7) Analyse the political content of selections from a work of fiction
