Objective of the Present work:

i) To study the work related to find out the real sources and value of humanism.
ii) To testify either the related work is preserved aesthetically and morally.
iii) To find out real importance of humanism among the different places and regions.