Hypothesis:

It is hypothesized that the representation of women in novel is validated with the contemporary social situations created the world of the novel through the elements of a novel such as characters, setting or situations, dialogues, point of view and so on as delineated and depicted as a mirror image of the contemporary socio-cultural setup of the society.