Objectives of the Present Research:

I) To find out the problems of Teaching English language at the primary level in Marathi medium schools

II) To search innovative pedagogies for the primary teachers of English for the classrooms

III) To create an interest among the students to learn English among the primary students

IV) To help them learn to use simple English

V) To help the teachers to make use of various activities in teaching learning process

VI) To help teachers to make teaching and learning interesting in the classroom

VII) To investigate the decision of making English compulsory at primary level

VIII) To take a survey of primary schools and find out the position of teaching of English at primary level