Objectives:-

1) The main objective of this study is the critical analysis of Mr. Babanrao Pachpute’s leadership in the development of Maharashtra in various sectors.
2) To evaluate the importance of his leadership for social justice.
3) To understand his struggle and conflict for establishing leadership in political field.
4) To estimate his role in the development of Ahmednagar District.
5) To take the review of his significant contributions as the minister of various portfolios and Nationalist party president (Region) for Maharashtra.
6) To assess how his contribution in co-operative sector has proved helpful for social implements.
7) To examine his role in the field of education for socio-economic transformation.
8) To study his contribution in religious field for social justice and social harmony.