Hypotheses

H1: The reverse effect is held on the literacy rate of our nation, because of increase in child labour

H2: Child labours are doing work of lower level & as a result their mental physical & social development is not possible.

H3: The nation’s standard of living is decreases by child labour

H4: Child labour problem increases the gap between high class society & lower class society