RESEARCH OBJECTIVES

The study aims to analyse key socio-economic characteristics of slum women related to Malegaon City (Dist. Nasik). Specifically, it attempts to extract quality of life of women in Malegaon slum. In addition, this study attempts to identify slum women problems of Malegaon.

1.3.1. General Objective:

To identify slum women problems with the age group of 14-60 years that can be utilised in targeting slum alleviation programmes relevant to Malegaon City.

1.3.2. Specific Objectives:

1) To analyse causes of slum formation relevant to Malegaon city.

2) To analyse key socio-economic characteristic of the case study.

3) To analyse quality of slum women’s life relevant to Malegaon city.

4) To find out other problems of slum women.

5) To evaluate how these factor affect on their development.

1.3.2. Scope of Research:

1) To analyse key socio-economic problems of slum women in Malegaon City.

1.1) The socio-economic characteristics of slum dwellers.

1.2) Socio-economic characteristics which affect to the development.

1.3) Socio-economic characteristics for development.

2) To analyse quality of slum women of Malegaon by the following parameters

2.1) What is the literacy rate?
2.2) What is the average income?

2.3) What is the percentage of higher education?

2.4) Evaluate how these factors affect development of slum dwellers.

3) To find out problems of slum women of Malegaon.

3.1) To find out problems of slum women related to Malegaon City.

3.2) To evaluate impact of these problems.