Hypothesis

1. It is assumed there are no errors in maintaining the data by using Accounting Information System in an organization.

2. Primarily concerned with the present maintenance of data using Accounting Information System, although it is often seen that past methods influences to a certain extent.

3. Concerned with conditions or situations that exist, opinions that are held, data maintaining methods and processes, are developing.