milk production, processing and marketing can only be attained through encouragement and assistance to the formation of commercial oriented dairy farmers association. This process may enhance participation of the target groups. Dairy processing plant has not achieved its objectives and targets in promoting raw milk processing. Dairy producers and consumers in Osamanabad have yet to benefit from this important establishment.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

1. Chakravarthy and Reddy- Dairy Development Programme, process and impact as study at village level. J. Of rural development PP:5-15
4. Rahane and Yadav (1992) - Role of Milk Project in economic development of rural area- A case study. PP:36-37