OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

To analyze the different dimensions of the health sector, which were being unnoticed in India as well as others countries such as

1. To detect unethical manner of professionalism,
2. To analyze clinical trial conducted in immoral way,
3. To find out the marketing strategy adopted by the pharmaceutical firm,
4. To evaluate exploitation of traditional knowledge,
5. To find out hurried movement of policy makers without maintaining adequate standards,
6. To find out capitalistic encroachment on health sector, and
7. To determine dual policy of health insurances.