OBJECTIVE

1. To assess the level of nicotine dependency and validate the self reported tobacco consumption status with salivary cotinine level
2. To estimate the salivary cotinine levels in tobacco smokers.
3. To assess the DNA damage on the buccal epithelial cells due to tobacco smoking by evaluating the Micronuclei (MN).
4. Identify the predictors of cotinine concentration in cigarette smokers