Objectives of the Research:

- To study and evaluate geographical location as a factor for renewable energy power plants
- To study and evaluate economics as a factor for renewable energy power plants
- To study and evaluate social and government policy as a factor for renewable energy power plants