Hypotheses

1. The null hypothesis will take concern of all the 8 objectives in that:-

2. There may not be any difference on the measure of academic achievement of children of working and non-working mothers.

3. There may not be any gender difference on the achievement scores of children of working mothers and non-working mothers.

4. There may not be any difference in the adjustment of children of working and non-working mothers.

5. There may not be any difference on the measure of each component of the adjustment of children of working and non-working mothers on the basis of gender.

6. There may not be any relationship between scores of academic achievement and academic adjustment of children of working and non-working mothers on the basis of gender.