OBJECTIVES

Based upon problem and data following are the objectives of this study.

1. To study the effective methods for the implementation of Case Flow Management in Trial Courts.

2. To assert the time bound period for the disposal of cases by usage of Case Flow Management policy in the trial courts system.

3. To find out the reasons behind the mammoth pendency in present judicial system.

4. To find out various other effective measures to solve the problems of pendency for justice delivery system such as Alternative Dispute Resolution System in consonance with trial court

METHODOLOGY