1. Objectives of the Study –

   The main objectives of the study are to discusses:

   1. The survival of paper print journals
   2. Changing attitude of the libraries of University libraries.
   3. Transit trend from paper to e–print journals.
   4. The better results of investment of the University libraries.
   5. Change in information seeking behavior of users.
   6. Reasons to be electronics / online e–journals.
   7. Strategy for the future of e-print journals.

Hypothesis –

   This study will prove the following hypothesis –

   1. University libraries provided facilities of electronic resources i.e. e – journals?
   2. University libraries provide library services to students, resources scholars and the faculty members to their satisfaction?
   3. The users prefer e-print journals than the print journals?
   4. The users do not facing Constraints in using or searching information on internet about e-journals?
   5. Library professionals are capable to provide user’s service?
2. Scope of the Study -

This study will include the following University libraries of the Western U.P.

1. Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University, Agra. (DBRUA)
2. C.C.C. University library, Meerut. (CCSUM)
3. Bundel Khand University, Jhansi (BUNUJ)
4. Sharda University, Greater Noida (SHUGN)
5. Babasahib Ambedkar University, Greater Noida (BAUGN)
6. Ammity University, Noida (AMMUN)
7. M.J.P. Rohilkhand University, Bareilly (MJPRU)
8. Sant Sahuji Maharaj Kanpur University (SSMKU)
9. Teerthankar Mahaveer University, Moradabad. (TEMUM).
10. IFTM University, Moradabad. (IFTUM).
11. G.L.A. University, Mathura (GLAUM)