The main aim of this research is to identify the crime which are committed against women in India and to study the social problems and legal assistance, provided by the constitution to safeguard the rights and dignity of women. By this research the researcher seek to analyse the problems of the women of the society and how it can be tackled and diminished. The researcher seeks to point out the existing legislatures for the protection of the women of the society and to point out that why they are still not being implemented properly.