OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

In the present study an attempt has is made to assess and evaluate the reservation system as has been promulgated by Indian constitution.

To know the status of cast system in India

To know that the how the effect of castism in political systems

To know the reservation system in India in brief

To know the status of other back words class and their political background

To know the mandal commission report for other back ground class castes