Objectives:

In order to develop the students, management institutes conduct several curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. It is necessary to understand the impact of such activities on the students as well as the industry. Therefore, the objectives of the research are mentioned as under:

Major Objectives

- To evaluate the existing system of management and business education.
- To identify the strengths and weaknesses associated with delivery system.
- To examine the relevance of existing guiding principles and basis of foundation of existing system.
- To analyse the impact of student development activities conducted by management institute.

Minor Objectives

The minor objectives of the study can be stated as follows.

- To analyze the various fictional aspects related with business educations.
- To identify the parameters for measuring qualitative and quantitative standards of these institutes.
- To set parameters to ascertain users satisfaction of management education
- To evaluate the response of stake holders to the existing systems of management education