3. OBJECTIVE OF THE STUDY:

- To conduct the systematic phytochemical investigation of plant material.
- To extract the specified parts of plants selected for the study.
- Screening of extracts of herbs for anti-inflammatory, analgesic and anti-pyretic activity
- Formulation and evaluation of conventional polyherbal dosage forms for topical use.
- Formulation and evaluation of transdermal patch (NDDS) containing herbal extracts.
- Screening of developed conventional polyherbal dosage forms and NDDS for their anti-inflammatory activity.
- The ultimate goal of the present work is to develop herbal medicine in a suitable dosage form for anti-inflammatory, analgesic and anti-pyretic activity.