Research Method:

There are various methods of research. For example, historical method, survey method, descriptive method and experimental method, from these methods, researcher will use survey method of research, i.e. actual school survey. Questioner will be used in the research. Review of related literature will be done by the researcher.

Population:

The proposed research is applicable to all secondary schools in Ahmednagar District.

Sampling:

50% schools will be selected using a lottery method from Ahmednagar district for this research.