Objectives of the study

Every research work is based on certain objectives help the researcher to plan his research work. The following objectives of the research project will help us to know what is to be achieved by this study.

1. To prepare the tool for studying the professional competence
2. To standardized the tool for professional competence of supervisors
3. To test the reliability and validity of standardized test
4. To study whether there is any difference between the professional competence of male and female supervisors
5. To study whether there is any difference between the professional competence of supervisors of granted and non-granted (self-finance) schools
6. To study whether there is any relationship between working area (rural and urban) of supervisors
7. To study whether there is any relationship between the teaching experience of the supervisors
8. To study whether there is any difference between professional competence of supervisors of large/medium/small size schools