1. Objectives

The objectives of the hydro chemical investigations, based on the goals are

1. To study and check the quality of drinking water.
2. To study and check the quality of underground water.
3. To study the content of heavy metals of drinking and underground water.
4. To study the hardness of underground water.
5. To check all above contents are at permissible limit (WHO) or not.
6. To study microbial activity of underground water.
7. For purification suggest the appropriate method to local authorities.