METHOD OF STUDY

The information regarding the research design, sources of data, sampling procedure, selection of variables, selection of the tests, description of the test and collection of the data are described in this chapter.

Sources of data:

The data pertaining to the present study will be collected from the 200 rural and 200 urban Cricket players out of 100 male and female cricket players who represent the college in the inter-collegiate tournament or district in the inter-district tournament of Amravati Region.

1) SELECTION OF VARIABLES

The Variables investigated will be selected from the performance. The variables are socio-Psychological. The list of variables is as follows.

1) Anxiety.
2) Frustration
3) Self-confidence.

4) SELECTION OF TESTS:

Considering the availability and suitability of tests, the following tests will be used to the date collection.
1) Dr. A.K.P. Sinha and L.N.K. Sinha, Sinha’s Comprehensive Anxiety test (SCAT) to find out the level of anxiety among male & female players from Rural and Urban area.

2) Dr. N.S. Chouhan, Nairashya Meapa Frustration Test, It measures reaction frustration in 4-mode aggression, resignation, fixation and regression of male and female players from urban and rural Area.

3) Dr. Miss Rekha Agnihotry’s Self-confidence Inventory (ASCI) to measure self-confidence between male and female player from urban and Rural Area.

Administration of the Tests:

The three selected Psychological Tests will be administered as per the procedures mentioned in the respective manuals.

Statistical Procedure:

To test the hypothesis the research scholar will use student ‘t’ test. The level of significance will be set at 0.05.