HYPOTHESIS OF THE STUDY

H1: Human Resource Department in Every Undergraduate colleges helps to motivate the faculties and student to improve healthy Environment in the colleges to become a competent institution to survive in the changing Educational standards.

H2: The Human Resource Department increases healthy Environment of the Staff and Motivate them to perform better in the institution and the institution will be able to survive in the global competitive market and changing Educational standard.