HYPOTHESES

It is hypothesized that there would be,

- H 1 - significant difference in level of ego integrity towards life between male and female geriatric population.
- H 2 – Significant association between level of ego integrity towards life of male geriatric population with selected socio demographic variables.
- H 3 – Significant association between level of ego integrity towards the life of female geriatric population with selected socio demographic variables.