Research Objectives

1. To analyze the content of Information Communication Technology from Teacher Education Diploma curriculum.
2. To explore the student’s level of earlier achievement of Information Communication Technology from Diploma in Teacher Education Colleges.
3. To explore difficulties faced by teaching professors from Diploma in Teacher Education in teaching Information Communication Technology.
4. To create multimedia computer sets for learning Information Communication Technology.
5. To study the effectiveness of the multimedia computer sets created for learning Information Communication Technology.