Objective of the Study

Every research work is based on certain objectives because without objectives one cannot get idea to plan his work. The objective of a research project summarize what is to be achieved by the study.

1. To construct the environmental awareness scale for high school students.
2. To study the effect of gender on the environmental awareness of high school students.
3. To study the effect of type of school on the environmental awareness of high school students.
4. To study the effect of area on the environmental awareness of high school students.