Research Methodology

Here the researcher should follow such research method that would give precise result and is suitable to the subject of the research work. “Research methods are of utmost importance in a research process because they describe the various steps of plan of attack to be adopted in solving a research problem, such as the manner in which the problems are formulated, definition of terms, the choice of subjects of investigation, the validation of data gathering tools, the collection, analysis and interpretation of data and the processes of inferences and generalization. For the present study researcher will use the Survey Method.

Population for the present study comprises of Higher Secondary School Students of Urban and Rural areas of Ahmedabad District.

The present study deals with the 2000 students of the Higher Secondary School students of Ahmedabad District. The hierarchy of the sample is as under.
Tool of the Study

For the present study researcher will use the standardized tool “Environmental Awareness Ability Measure” prepared by Praveen Kumar Jha. This Environmental Awareness Ability Measure (EEAM) consists 51 items based on various environmental factors- causes of pollution conservation of soil forest, air etc. energy conservation, conservation of human health, conservation of wild life and animal husbandry. It is a highly related and valid test and standardized on 300 boys and 300 girls from higher secondary to college level ageing between 14 to 21 years.