Hypothesis

Following are the hypotheses of research proposal.

1. There is significant correlation between marketing tool and image building of management institutes.

2. Marketing strategies have significant impact on image building of management institutes.

3. Infrastructural environment in Nashik is suitable for improvement in management institutes through marketing strategies.

4. Student’s satisfaction is the driving force behind different marketing strategies.