WORK PLAN & METHODOLOGY:

I) ARRANGEMENT OF THE TEXT:-

Present study will be divided into seven chapters,

1) The first chapter is introduction part will be includes aims, objective, hypothesis, methodology, approach and review of previous literature.

2) The second chapter will be including study of location, climate, relief, drainage and soils of the study region.

3) The third chapter includes Socio-economic review of the study area.

4) The fourth chapter will be including history of flood affected settlement.

5) The fifth chapter will be related with site, size and pattern of flood affected settlement.

6) The six chapter related with re-habitation of flood affected Settlements in the study area.

7) The seven chapters will be the summary, conclusion and suggestions of the study of present work.
II) METHODOLGY:

The present work would be carried out by using following methodology.

A) Literature survey.
B) Field work.
C) Laboratory work.

A) LITERATURE SURVEY:-

The available literature on the above topic of research will be obtained from various libraries, research institutes, research journals, internet and administrative offices.

B) FIELD WORK:-

It will be include survey of the study area, collection of data and information regarding floods and rehabilitation of settlement as well as sites, sizes and pattern of affected settlement.

C) LABORATORY WORK:-

Laboratory work will include preparation of base map, relief map, slope map, of the region. Cartographic work is done to represent the work carried out. Various analytical methods will be used to represent the work carried out. And finally writing of the final report will be done.