HYPOTHESIS:

1. Various details like state wise and year wise details should be gathered for characterization.

2. In the characterization of details collected on death penalties, the capital punishments should be separated in year wise in order to sort it out for vivid characterization.

3. A detailed analysis is to be carried by comparing in the characterization in two categories such as state wise comparison and year wise comparison.

4. On this analysis the major actions carried should be listed out and evaluated in detail regarding the course of action taken on the victims

5. On this basis, various suggestions will be listed out on evaluation to eradicate the capital punishments in India.

6. Further evaluation on these results will be used to list out the actions to be taken to remunerate the death penalty