1.4 Objectives of the study

1. To know the Historical perspectives of the bhiwani District constructions

2. To know the actual economics conditions of the workers rural and urban.

3. To understand the payment of wages pay to the workers.

4. To know the extent of implementation of various Acts applicable to related construction workers.

To study the working of social security scheme in construction sector