HYPOTHESIS

In this study, the researcher has to identify the following important workable hypotheses. The more number of hypotheses will be included at the time of deeply entering in the research area.

1. Performance evaluation and practices to be considered for inevitable in public and private sector.

2. Employee performance practices and measures to be viewed by public and private sector unit employees as essential for achieving organizational goals.

3. There will be a positive relationship between the perceived scores of employees for various elements of employee performance.

4. Use of appropriate performance system enhances the Employees as well as organisational efficiency and its development.