OBJECTIVES

The aim of this study is to understand the problems of the children whose mothers are working i.e. the mothers who are not able to give sufficient time to the children.

The key objectives therefore are as follows:

• To understand the Psychology of the children of Working Mothers.

• To understand the Emotional Problems faced by the children of Working Mothers.

• To know the Social Problems faced by the children of Working Mothers.

• To study the Educational Problems faced by the children of Working Mothers.

• To know whether the children have adjusted themselves to that environment or not.

• To analyze the Educational, Emotional and Social problems of the children of Working Mothers.