OBJECTIVES OF THE PRESENT STUDY:

1. To develop a programme for enhancing English Listening Skill of the Gujarati Medium students of Standard-VIII with the help of three different modes, i.e. only listening, listening with its transcript and audio-visual mode.

2. To study the effectiveness of the developed programme with three different modes of presentation in terms of students’ achievement in post-test.

3. To study the effectiveness of the programme so developed in terms of the reactions of the students.

4. To study the relative effectiveness of the developed programme with three different modes of presentation in terms of differences in the gain achievement scores of the students.

5. To study the relative effectiveness of the developed programme with three different modes of presentation in terms of differences in the gain achievement scores of the students for variable “Gender”.