Hypotheses

On the basis of the literature reviewed, available research findings, expert's opinion and scholar's own understanding of the problem, it was assumed that there would be no significant difference between the all India, west zone and intercollegiate players in different psychological variable.